

STATE FILES
EXCEPTIONSMinnesota Takes Action in the Railroad Rate Cases.

TO FINDINGS OF JUDGE OTIS

Objection Made by the Attorneys Representing the Commonwealth—Case Is One of Vital Importance to the People of Minnesota, as It Involves the Principle of State Sovereignty.

St. Paul, Oct. 22.—The general and special exceptions of the State of Minnesota to the findings of Judge Charles E. Otis, special master in chancery, in the Minnesota rate cases, have been filed with Judge Otis. The master's decision, in which he recommended that the United States circuit court, before which the cases are pending, decide in favor of the railroads in every material point, was filed Sept. 21.

The general exceptions, contained in thirty-three closely typewritten pages, were prepared by former Attorney General E. T. Young. The special exceptions, of about the same length, were prepared and submitted by Edmund S. Durmont. Both appeared as special counsel for the state in the preparation and trial of the case, and in the exceptions filed they acted for C. F. Staples, Ira B. Mills and Charles E. Elmqvist of the Minnesota state railroad and warehouse commission and for George T. Simpson, attorney general.

Inasmuch as the case is one of vital importance to the people of Minnesota, involving principles of state sovereignty and the rights of the state to regulate and control the affairs of public service corporations, the state's attorneys have incorporated in their exceptions every material point affecting the merits of the case, which may be the possible subject of contention in the supreme court of the United States. The reasons for each exception are set forth at length.

Direct Issue Is Taken.

Direct issue is taken with Judge Otis' finding that the state exceeded its constitutional powers in prescribing the contested rates because, as the master said, such rates constituted a direct interference with and imposed a burden upon interstate commerce. The state maintains the Constitution gives congress control over commerce beginning in one state and ending in another and the interstate commerce act provides for the federal regulation of transportation carried on between different states, and that the laws involved apply by their terms not only to interstate business and do not overlap and conflict with any federal laws. Although substantive law is cited in support of the constitutionality of the Minnesota rate laws, expediency and public policy are also urged in that a judicial finding which cripples the commerce power of a state does not enlarge the commerce power of the nation.

General exception is entered to the method adopted by Judge Otis in fixing the valuation of the railroad property employed in the state. This is considered the most important feature of the Otis decision. After stating that the master ignored the original investment as a measure of the valuation upon which they are entitled to a return, and also ignored the outstanding stocks and bonds of each company, which exceeded the actual investment, Mr. Young says:

"He adopted the so-called cost of reproduction as the sole measure of the value of railroad property. The plan followed by the master reduces railroad valuation to a mere exploit of the imagination. Under it the value of railroad property can be fixed at any figure which interested parties will swear they believe it to be worth, and if such a plan is upheld by the courts railroads can make the public pay any rates they see fit to charge."

Objects to Division Method.

The state objects to Judge Otis' division of the value of railroad property between state and interstate business, both passenger and freight. It is stated that Judge Otis, by charging to intrastate business an undue percentage of the common value of both intra and interstate, it is made to appear that the railroads are not earning a compensatory income on their Minnesota investment and that therefore the Minnesota rate laws are confiscatory.

Specific objection is made to the method of determining the relative operating expenses as applied to interstate and intrastate business, to the apportionment of internal and interstate freight business and to the local and long haul rates as applied by the master.

Judge Otis decided that the cost of handling intrastate passengers is 15 per cent greater than the cost of handling interstate passengers. Objection is made to this or any other arbitrary percentage. This apportionment of business as a means of fixing values is one of the most important features of the master's decision. The twenty-five pages of Mr. Young's thirty-three-page document of exceptions is devoted to this feature of the case alone.

A direct and clear plea for the validity of the rate laws against which an injunction is sought is made.

The next step in the proceedings will be the consideration by the master in chancery of the exceptions filed by both the railroads and the state.

He will make further recommendations based upon these exceptions and another stay of thirty days will be allowed for the lawyers of both sides to submit further exceptions. The entire record in the case, including the evidence, findings of the master, the two sets of exceptions, the master's findings on these exceptions and the additional exceptions, will then go to Judge Walter H. Sanborn of the United States circuit court.

Judge Sanborn will set a time for hearing the arguments of counsel. The case will be appealed direct to the United States supreme court.

INDICTED FOR CONSPIRING

P. J. Walsh of Minneapolis and South Dakota Man Accused.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Oct. 22.—A federal grand jury has returned an indictment against John H. Conway of Belle Fourche and P. J. Walsh of Minneapolis on the charge of entering into a conspiracy to cover up assets in connection with bankruptcy proceedings instituted in the federal court for South Dakota against Conway by his creditors.

After the indictment was returned an attorney representing Walsh filed a demurrer to the indictment. This was based on the allegation that it did not set forth specific statements of facts in connection with the alleged conspiracy.

Judge Carland sustained it and ordered that the case again be presented to the grand jury and that Walsh be kept in custody.

Walsh was arrested in Minneapolis some weeks ago and was brought to Sioux Falls soon in jail pending action upon his case by the grand jury.

BUFFALO HUNT IN CANADA

Last of Its Kind Will Be Held Next Month.

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 22.—Who wants to go for a buffalo hunt, positively the last in all the world?

There are yet about seventy-five to eighty-five buffalo of the Pablo herd, purchased by Canada. Of this number, there are thirty to thirty-five tough old outlaw buffalo bulls. They have led practically all the stampedes. These old grizzled warriors will never be taken alive, and are leading the more tractable animals astray.

Pablo has decided to shoot them, and has announced a big buffalo hunt, beginning Nov. 1. He will furnish a guide or hunter, saddle horses and everything complete, and asks for nothing but $250 when the animal is slain. These animals are from fifteen to twenty-five years of age.

SENATOR LODGE.

Colonel Roosevelt Speaks in His Behalf at Boston.

IT WOULD BE A CALAMITY

Roosevelt So Considers Failure to Re-Elect Senator Lodge.

Boston, Oct. 22.—Theodore Roosevelt spoke here in behalf of the Republican party of Massachusetts. He said it would be a calamity to the nation if Senator Lodge should fail of re-election. The senator, he said, was a friend of progressive legislation, and that there was no difference of opinion as to the basic principle of protection, as the Republican party stood solidly on the tariff plank of the Republican state platform and of the tariff board scheme. He said that he was advocating the same political principles in his speech that he had advocated in all of his speeches during the summer, from the Rocky mountains to the Eastern seaboard.

Colonel Roosevelt's reception in Boston was enthusiastic.

UNABLE TO FIND
THE MURDERERPolice Cannot Locate Slayer of a Motorman.

St. Paul, Oct. 22.—With the entire force of plain clothes men and officers at work upon the case the St. Paul police department finds itself baffled as to the identity of the lone highwayman who killed Motorman James E. Alexander Thursday night. The two men arrested as suspects earlier in the day and who are accused of two other car robberies succeeded in accounting for their whereabouts at the time of the murder. They are now held on the other charges.

The description which Conductor Walter H. Gross was able to give of the robber is not accurate enough to give the police much assistance. They are pinning their faith of capture upon the rifle used and the khaki costume which he wore when he stepped from the shadow of the fence just before the shooting.

There is one other possibility of capture and that is based on Gross' belief that Alexander's third shot struck his assailant. The motorman is thought to have fired twice before the man with the rifle turned from the conductor. He fired almost at the same time as the motorman's third shot rang out and immediately afterwards Gross thought the man groaned as if in pain and staggered to one side. As he opened the magazine after the shot the shell jammed, as though the hand that operated the lever was weak or clumsy.

His manner of escape from the scene of his crime possibly substantiates the theory. He did not run, but shuffled off in a queer, slow fashion, watching the place where his victim was lying.

Should the supposition that he was hit prove correct the police believe his arrest, or at least a fresh clue, must follow soon. The reward of $1,000 offered by the street car company, officials believe, would bring the desired information from any doctor who might have had such a case.

SCHWAB NOW IN CONTROL

Obtains Majority of Stock of the Cramp Company.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—"The Bethlehem Steel company has secured a controlling interest in the stock of the William Cramp & Sons' Ship and Engine Building company." This statement was made by an official of the Cramp company and is the first absolute confirmation of rumors concerning the big deal that has been given out.

The official of the Cramp company who told of the sale said that, while a majority of the stock has been purchased by Mr. Schwab's concern, the management of the shipbuilding company has not yet been changed.

OFFICIALS ARE NOT OPTIMISTIC

Fear That Treaty With Canada May Not Be Ratified.

FATE HINGES ON ELECTION

If the Democrats Carry the Next House Administration Officials Are Afraid That President Taft May Not Realize His Ambition to Have the United States Enter Reciprocal Arrangements With Canada During His Administration.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Administration officials are not in a very optimistic frame of mind over the prospective reciprocal trade negotiations with Canada. They have no doubt the representatives of this government will be able to reach an agreement with Ottawa, but are by no means certain of the fate of the instrument that is expected to be negotiated. This apprehension is based on the political outlook. If the Democrats carry the next house the fear is expressed that President Taft may not realize his ambition to have the United States enter reciprocal arrangements with Canada during the life of this administration.

According to statements made here representatives of this government will meet the Canadian authorities in Ottawa the latter part of November to lay the ground work for the proposed treaty. Later the officials will come to Washington to continue the negotiations.

Does Not Assure Its Ratification.

While it may be possible for the two governments to perfect an agreement long before congress adjourns this does not assure the ratification of the treaty at the coming session. In the first place any treaty that may be entered into with Canada would require changes in the tariff that could be made only by concurrent action by the two houses. Administration officials admit it would be difficult to induce congress to tinker with the tariff this year.

If the Democrats win in November they might, officials believe, prevent the ratification of a Canadian treaty at the December session.

If a Republican house is elected in November no doubt is expressed by administration officials a trade arrangement with Canada that will be decidedly advantageous to American trade will be entered into within the next year or so.

COURT SETTLES LODGE CASE

A. O. U. W. of Wisconsin May Pay Death Claims.

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 22.—Judge A. L. Sanborn has handed down a decision in the United States court by which it is probable the grand lodge of Wisconsin, A. O. U. W., will pay the death claims against it, dollar for dollar. These amount to nearly $60,000.

Judge Sanborn ruled that the grand lodge of Nebraska must pay into the treasury of the supreme lodge $160,000, due on its guarantee fund. It is probable that other grand lodges, which have refused to pay the amounts due the supreme lodge on their guarantee fund, pending a court decision, will abide by the decision of the court. The supreme lodge will then make up the deficiency of the Wisconsin grand lodge treasury, and thus make the lodge solvent.

The action was the outcome of a suit brought by the Fidelity Trust company. On Oct. 6, 1909, the grand lodge of this state became insolvent and the Fidelity Trust company was made receiver. There was an indebtedness in death claims of $90,000, 20 per cent of which was in the treasury.

The receiver maintained that the supreme lodge was liable for the deficiency, and obtained an examination of the officers of the supreme lodge early in 1908. The supreme lodge contended that its fund was exhausted and that inasmuch as the ground lodges of Nebraska, Kansas and Minnesota had refused to pay into the supreme lodge treasury their guarantee funds, there was no fund by which the supreme lodge could reimburse the grand lodge of Wisconsin. The receiver asked that suit be brought against the deficient grand lodges.

It was decided to bring suit against the grand lodge of Nebraska. Action was brought in the United States court at Grand Island, Neb.

Besides the $160,000 to be paid in by the Nebraska grand lodge to the supreme lodge, other grand lodges are expected to pay $400,000. Out of this sum will be paid to the receiver for the Wisconsin grand lodge enough to discharge all indebtedness of the state lodge.

KELLOGG CALLS ON TAFT

Minnesota Attorney Says He Will Not Succeed Bowers.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Frank Kellogg, after a call on the president, made it very clear to the newspaper men that he would not accept the office of solicitor general to succeed the late Lloyd W. Bowers if it were offered to him. There has been much speculation as to the probability of Mr. Kellogg's appointment, and it is understood in official circles that he could have the office if he would accept it.

Mr. Kellogg explained that he called on the president merely to pay his respects. Late in the afternoon he went for a horseback ride with the president.

CHARGES ARE TO BE INVESTIGATEDMilk Trust Said to Exist in New York City.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Attorney General Wickersham directed W. S. Kenyon, assistant to the attorney general and his official "trust buster," to investigate charges of an alleged milk trust with headquarters in New York's financial district. The charges originated with milk dealers in Washington and vicinity, who are being pressed very hard by the district authorities in their efforts to purify the milk supply furnished to the national capital.

At a hearing before the district commissioners, Corbin, Thompson and H. O. Trundle, who are identified with the dairymen's association of Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia, charged that the agitation by the health authorities of the district in favor of pasteurization was prompted by the fact that local health authorities and certain scientists in the department of agriculture were hand in glove with a "multimillionaire trust for the control of the milk supply of the country."

Mr. Thompson charged that a number of rich men in New York had secured control of pasteurizing machines. He named as members of the trust Levi P. Morton, Thomas F. Ryan, Anthony Brady, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., John F. Flagler and other New Yorkers.

According to Thompson, the trust is reaching out to other cities.

The attorney general is not entirely clear as to what can be done in the matter.

SUFFRAGE IS VOTED DOWN

Its Friends Surprised by Action of South Dakota Federation.

Aberdeen, S. D., Oct. 22.—By a majority of one vote the resolution endorsing the equal suffrage amendment to the state constitution to be voted on in the election next month was defeated in the closing session of the convention of the Federation of Women's clubs of South Dakota. The vote was 18 to 17. So great was the surprise of the suffragists that they insisted on submitting the resolution a second time. It was done, with the same result. Nearly a third of the delegates did not vote, some having left the floor a short time before and others not participating in the count. Several of those voting against the resolution said they did so, though against their personal convictions, because they were unacquainted with the clubs they represented.

Officers of the federation for the following year were elected. They are: President, Miss Emma C. Hall, Milbank; vice president, Mrs. Esther C. Houseman, Sioux Falls; recording secretary, Miss Sadie Robinson, Pierre; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Zella Wilson, Aberdeen; treasurer, Mrs. Norma Reeve, Flandreau; eastern division correspondent, Mrs. Belle Butterfield, Mitchell; western division correspondent, Mrs. Caribel Tiltonson, Lemmon; general federation secretary, Mrs. B. E. Hendricks, Sioux Falls.

Anti Tuberculosis Meetings

One of the principal speakers at the anti-tuberculosis meetings Monday and Tuesday, will be Dr. H. W. Hill of the State Board of Health. Dr. Hill has spent several years with the Boston Board of Health. Since coming to Minnesota he has had charge of the epidemic work and is doing a great work. Dr. Hill is coming to Brainerd to give the people the benefit of his wide study and experience free of charge. And what he says can be understood by all.

The Bemidji Pioneer commenting on Dr. Hill's address in Bemidji says:

"In language so plain that everyone of the 400 persons present could understand, speakers at the anti-tuberculosis exhibition at the armory warned the public against the perils of the disease which today has fastened its clutches upon 10,000 persons in Minnesota. How to escape the deadly tuberculosis germ and how to successfully combat it was told by experts. Dr. H. W. Hill of the state board of health as the principal speaker of the evening, citing many seemingly trivial incidents of every day life which have a direct bearing upon the fight against consumption."

Prof. Hay, supt. of the city schools of Thief River Falls in closing the series of meetings held there said: "I have been impressed with the simplicity with which these health matters have been presented."

NAVY ADOPTS AEROPLANES.

French Torpedo Depot Ships to Have Fliers' Platform.

Admiral Boue de Lapeyriere, the French minister of marine, has ordered the rearrangement of the superstructure of the torpedo depot ship La Foudre for the accommodation of aeroplanes. The plans will permit the use of the deck not only for housing the tying machines, but as a point from which they may conveniently ascend and on which they may safely alight. This is the first step in the practical employment of aeroplanes in the navy.

Will Look for Missing Balloonists in Canada.

THREE HAVE NOT REPORTED

The Azarea, Dusseldorf II. and the America II. Have Not Been Heard From—Feared That They Have Landed Somewhere in the Wilds of Canada and That the Pilots and Their Aids May Die of Starvation.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—Relief expeditions to search for the pilots and aids of the three missing balloons, Azarea, Dusseldorf II. and America II., which started in the international race here Monday and who apparently have been lost, will be started from Toronto, Ont., Sunday, if no news is received from the men before that time. This announcement was made by officials of the Aero club of St. Louis.

The German balloon Germania, Captain Hugo von Abercron, pilot, and August Blanckertz, aid, landed at Cocococacache, 178 miles north of Quebec, Wednesday morning. This is approximately 1,195 miles, and may mean that all world's records have been broken.

The situation in reference to the unreported balloons assumed a most serious aspect. It is believed here that the men have landed somewhere in the wilds of Canada, where they may be the victims of starvation before succor can reach them.

The Aero club called upon General Fred Allen, chief of the United States signal corps at Washington, D. C., to have the revenue cutters patrolling the Great Lakes look for wreckage in Lake Huron. Steamship companies which have vessels plying Lake Huron and Georgian bay have been requested to join in the search.

Canada to Render Assistance.

The Ontario government, through its lieutenant governor, J. M. Gibson, notified the club that its service would be rendered in the search for the missing men.

It was announced that a representative of the Aero club would be sent to Toronto to organize relief expeditions.

The Germania is considered among the missing balloons, despite the fact that it has been reported from Ville Marie, Pontiac county, Quebec, and other points. It was so reported Wednesday from Pogramassing, Ont., but it afterwards developed that Alfred Le Blanc's balloon Isle d'France was meant in the dispatches.

All of the balloons should have been down and reported by Wednesday night, according to Aero club officials, and the fact that more than a hundred hours have elapsed since the start of the race, and neither Pilots Messner, Gerlicke, Hawley or their aids have reported to the Aero Club of America has given rise to grave apprehension for their safety.

It was pointed out that the greatest danger is anticipated in the case of a balloon having descended in Georgian bay.

This stretch of water contains more than 30,000 islands of all sizes where the aeronauts might perish before relief could arrive.

WANT TARIFF REDUCTION

Canadian Farmers Will Make Demand at Ottawa.

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—All arrangements have been completed for the big delegation of Western farmers who will visit Ottawa to present their views on the tariff and other questions before the government. The date has been fixed as Dec. 16 and 600 Western farmers will make the trip in special trains. A big Ontario and Quebec delegation will join the Western farmers at Ottawa. The organized fruit growers of Nova Scotia and organized dairymen also will be represented.

The special train will leave Winnipeg on Dec. 12. Upon arrival at Ottawa the farmers will hold a conference on Dec. 15 and meet Sir Wilfrid Laurier the following day.

The Western farmers will ask for an immediate acceptance of the offer of the United States of free trade in agricultural implements and also, if possible, reciprocity in natural products. They will ask also that the British preference be increased to 50 per cent and that the duty be taken off cement and a number of other articles run by combines. They will ask also for a general reduction of the tariff to a revenue basis, with the protective principle eliminated. The farmers will oppose the appointment of a tariff commission.

Government ownership of terminal elevators will be asked, as well as the immediate construction of the Hudson Bay railroad.

MUST MAKE GOOD

The Northern Minnesota Development association will hold its third meeting in Brainerd, and coming just before the meeting of the legislature, when legislation desired by Northern Minnesota must be formulated, it will be much the most important meeting that this association will ever hold. For this reason, every issue of every newspaper in Northern Minnesota contains laudatory notices of the meeting calling attention to its extreme importance to every citizen of Northern Minnesota, and urging all to remember the slogan, "All Eyes on Brainerd."

As a result this city is being advertised as never before in its history. In truth "All eyes are on Brainerd," and whether it will be of great and lasting benefit to Brainerd—as it should be—or not, depends on whether Brainerd "Makes Good."

Whether these hundreds of eyes in December will rest on a live, public spirited, hustling city, or on an indifferent and dead one, will decide whether the advertising we are now receiving will be of inestimable benefit, or a positive damage.

If our visitors are received with the generous hospitality that our citizens know so well how to dispense, with every material convenience and comfort of the visitors arranged for in advance, so that all may enjoy their visit to the full, then the praises of the city will be sung by every returning visitor, and the benefit received will be incalculable.

But to do this requires organization and concerted effort in providing means for the comfort and entertainment of our guests. The old town should be cleaned up and bear as spic and span an appearance as is possible at that time of the year, and above all every citizen should be a booster. One pessimist, one disgruntled knocker, can do great damage, therefore all should enthuse over our brilliant prospects and talk a greater and better Brainerd, and the visitors will go home yearning to live in a hustling, progressive city.

These people, too, will bring in much money and well repay in trade for their entertainment, but, above all, no merchant or business man should take one cent of advantage of them as is often done to strangers, for nothing injures a place as much as the petty graft of its dealers.

So let us get together and organize and provide every comfort and entertainment for our visitors in December that we may reap the benefit of the advertising we are now receiving. Brainerd must "Make Good," and then we will be glad that "All Eyes are on Brainerd."

CONTRACTS FOR ELECTRIC CURRENT

As Drawn by City Attorney Ryan and Consulting Engineer Clausen

PROPOSED CONTRACT OF STONER

Contract With Totz Engineering Co. as Nearly Identical as Production Permits

Below we publish a copy of the proposed contract to be made by the city with M. D. Stoner to furnish current for light and power for the city as drawn by City Attorney Ryan in consultation with Consulting Engineer Clausen and approved by the city council. We understand it is also agreeable to Mr. Stoner. The Totz contract is identical with the Stoner contract in so far as it can be, considering the difference ways of producing the current. In both contracts the pumping rate is left blank and the minimum amount of current is also blank in the Totz contract and the light rate is 2 cents.

This agreement, made in duplicate and entered into at the city of Brainerd, Crow Wing County, Minnesota on the _____ day of _____ 1910 by and between the City of Brainerd, a municipal corporation of the State of Minnesota, party of the first part, and hereinafter called first party, and M. D. Stoner, of the city of Bemidji, Beltrami County, Minnesota, party of the second part, and hereinafter called the second party,

Witnesseth: That the second party in consideration of the premises and agreements of the first party hereinafter recited does hereby agree to generate, furnish, sell and deliver to the first party all the electrical current which the first party may need for its distributing system as now or hereafter maintained for the full period of ten (10) years from and after the date of this agreement.

The current so sold and delivered shall be delivered at the first party's switch board at about twenty two hundred (2200) volts, normal sixty (60) cycle, three (3) phase alternating current, and said voltage shall be controlled and regulated by a five (5) bar Terrell Regulator, the exact voltage to be as required by the Water and Light board or its successors, of the first party, and the service of said current to be continuous and satisfactory, provided that all motors of twenty-five (25) horse power or over used upon the distributing system of the first party shall be of the slip ring type except such as are in use on said distributing system at the date of this agreement.

The second party further agrees to erect a temporary frame building on the east bank of the Mississippi river and between the Northern Pacific railway company's right of way and the Laurel street bridge and place therein a modern electrical steam plant of sufficient capacity to furnish the first party with all the current it may require on its distributing system as now or hereafter maintained until such time as the second party shall have completed and placed in operation a hydro electric plant on the Crow Wing River, and hereafter furnish said current with either said steam or hydro electric plant, and further agrees that within one (1) year from date of this agreement he will replace said temporary frame building with a fire proof building.

The second party further agrees to provide room in each of the aforesaid buildings and shall, free of compensation, allow the first party to place therein its switch board and other necessary appliances for its sub-station and, without compensation, to operate under the supervision of the Water and Light board or its successors, of the first party, said switch board and other necessary appliances, and the first party's Water and Light Board or its successors through its officers or employees shall be allowed access to said switch board and other necessary appliances at all reasonable hours for the purpose of repairing, altering, examining or testing any or either of them or the meter which shall record the consumption of current, but the second party shall not be liable for any injury or damage to said switch board or appliances not the result of the negligence of himself, his agents or servants.

5. The second party further agrees that within a period of four (4) months from the date of this agreement he will furnish the first party with said current or pay to the first party any difference in the cost of current which the first party may be obliged to pay in excess of the price named herein from and after the period of four (4) months from the date of this agreement.

6. The second party further agrees that he shall be liable for any interruption of current, except such as is caused by inevitable accident and the making of repairs made necessary by the ordinary wear and tear of the equipment or appliances, but in case of interruption of current from any cause the service shall be re-established at once, and all repairs made by the second party which shall necessitate any interruption to the service shall be made at a time designated by said Water and Light board or its successors, the second party further agreeing that in case of any breakdown in any or both of the steam or hydro electric plant the first party is to be served up to its full requirements in preference to any and all of the second party's other patrons.

7. The first party in consideration of the premises and of the faithful performance by the second party of all of the terms and conditions of this agreement to be by him kept and performed agrees that it will during the full term of ten (10) years from and after the date of this instrument purchase and receive from the second party all the current which the first party may require for sale to its light and power patrons and not less than Two hundred thousand (200,000) kilo-watts per year and the first party shall pay therefor at the rate of two and one quarter (2 1/4) cents per kilo-watt hour.

8. The first party agrees to pay in legal tender or its equivalent, on or about the 10th day of each month after all the current used during the preceding calendar month at the rate hereinbefore named.

9. The first party does hereby grant unto the second party the right to construct one high tension pole line from said steam plant in a southerly or westerly direction across or along its streets or alleys to the city limits as now or hereafter located, such streets or alleys to be hereafter designated by resolution of the City Council of the first party, and said pole line to be constructed and maintained according to all the present or future laws or ordinances of the first party, the details of the construction and maintenance of said pole line being subject to the approval of the said Water and Light board or its successors, and the first party reserves the right to at any time re-designate by resolution of the City Council the streets or alleys to be thereafter used by the second party for said pole line upon thirty (30) days notice in writing, the changing of said pole line under any re-designation by the first party to be made and the expense therefor paid by the second party.

10. In case any dispute should arise between the parties hereto as to the amount of current consumed in any period of time, the dispute shall be determined and decided by three (3) arbitrators; one to be appointed by the first party; one by the second party and one by the two first chosen, and the decision of said arbitrating board shall be final and conclusive. In the event either party hereto shall, in case of such dispute, fail to appoint an arbitrator within ten (10) days after demand so to do by the other party, then such dispute may be determined by the arbitrator appointed by the party serving such demand and the decision of such arbitrator shall be binding and conclusive, provided such notice shall be served by or on the said Water and Light board or its successors, and provided, further, that any expense of any such arbitration shall be borne by both parties, share and share alike.

11. The second party shall before the execution of this agreement by the first party furnish the first party a surety company bond in the sum of Twenty-five Thousand (25,000) dollars, said bond to run for a period of five (5) years after the date of this agreement and after the expiration of said five (5) years shall furnish such a bond in the sum of Fifteen Thousand (15,000) Dollars each of said bonds to be conditioned upon the full and faithful performance of each and all of the terms and conditions of this agreement and to save the city harmless from any and all claims for damage or injury to property or persons by reason of the construction or maintenance of any of his property or appliances within the corporate limits of the first party as now or hereafter defined, the first party reserving the right to require the second party to at any time furnish either of said bonds in another or different surety company from the one in which such bond may be written.

12. The second party hereby agrees that at any time during the term of this agreement the first party has the right and option to demand of the second party the furnishing of electrical current for the purpose of pumping water for its water distributing system, and upon the exercise of said right and option and the making of such demand by the first party, the second party agrees to furnish electrical current for the purpose of pumping water for the water distributing system of the first party at the rate of—
The hours of 11:00 o'clock P. M. and 7:00 o'clock P. M. from the 15th day of March to the 15th day of October and between the hours of 11:00 o'clock P. M. and 5:00 o'clock P. M. from the 15th day of October to the 15th day of March.

13. The second party further agrees that the first party has the right and option to renew this contract at the rates herein named upon the giving of notice in writing to the second party thirty (30) days prior to the date of its expiration.

14. It is mutually agreed by both parties hereto that all the rights, privileges, duties and obligations herein contained or arising by the terms hereof shall be binding upon and insure to the benefit of the successors or assigns of the first party and of the heirs, executors, administrators or assigns of the second party.

In witness whereof, the first party has caused these presents to be executed by its Mayor and attested by its clerk and its corporate seal to be hereto attached, and the second party has thereto set his hand and seal the day and year first written above.

HEARING CONTINUED

Several Boys in Custody Given a Heart to Heart Talk by Judge Sanborn on Majesty of Law

Several boys who were brought before Judge of Probate J. T. Sanborn, the same having been transferred from the municipal court a few days before, who had been charged with several misdemeanors, were yesterday arraigned before him. Those who were on hand at the hearing say that the judge delivered to the youthful offenders a fine lecture on the majesty of the law, on the influence of regular school attendance and the evils that result from disobedience to parents, that made a profound impression. The hearing was continued until December 5th. In the meantime, however, the boys are left in the custody and care of Mr. G. W. Pippy, probation officer of the city, who is to look into their conduct in school, on the street, and in their homes.

The judge also instructed Mr. Pippy to inquire of their teachers and neighbors as to their conduct, and if they were absent half a day from school without sufficient cause they were to be brought before the judge at once. It is reported that the school board of this city is determined to put an end to truancy, and police authorities to stop depredations which too many of the boys of this city of late have been committing.

ELECTIONEERING METHODS ARE UNIQUE

Col. C. D. Johnson of This City Nothing if Not Original in His Methods

GETS SUPPORT OF LADIES FIRST

On the Theory That Their Husbands Will be Converted by Them

If woman's suffrage was in vogue in this state, C. D. Johnson, of this city who is running for senator would most assuredly get the vote of the ladies. Mr. Johnson is employing some most original methods of getting before the people. One of his political cards which has been widely distributed to the voters of the district concludes: Should you wish to know anything more about me, ask my wife." Quite recently the city has been well flooded with cards attached to which is a tiny bottle of the drug store's very best perfume and printed thereon: "Ladies, you have more influence with you your husband than I have. Please influence him to vote for Charles D. Johnson for state senator."

It is said that most homes in this city have received these cards and that a rich perfume greets each caller, while husbands, young and old, have had such a baptism of eau de Cologne which indicates that the ladies are at work with the tiny bottle.

But Mrs. Johnson, wife of the unique gentleman who is running hard for the senate, is having her hands full in a way Charley D. never dreamed of. It appears that Mr. Johnson visited Pequot, took in the fair and was very busy meeting his many friends there and handing out his cards. Quite a number of gentlemen have taken the advice of the first card and written letters to his wife asking her about him and his ability, etc., etc., and it is reported that Mrs. Johnson is now demanding several typewriters to answer all the correspondence that is pouring in upon her. Of the many letters having reached her, one from Pequot tops the climax. In this letter the writer praises very highly the social and intellectual qualifications of Mr. Johnson, thinks that these things are apparent; but he wished to know about Mr. Johnson's church attendance, his general interest in Crow Wing county, his ability to look after himself both in and out of the senate chambers, as to whether his clothes were all ready and neatly brushed and a bottle of perfume had been placed in each pocket for his coming colleagues, and whether it would be necessary for her to attend St. Paul with him to look after his general appearance. A Brainerdite who happened to be in Pequot this week affirms that he saw the answer Charley D.'s wife sent in reply, and which records her unqualified opinion that he is cut out by nature and business training to represent this district in the senate. Of Charley's church attendance and other things she writes: "He always attends the sad sad rites of his friends, and the memorial services of the various orders to which he belongs but grieves at their going. Answering the many interrogatives the Pequot letter contains in as brief a way as possible she concludes: "No, I shall not attend St. Paul to look after him, but shall see that his clothes are pressed, his socks darned, collar buttons, needle and thread, and other sundry things are put into his trunk." That she will not worry at all when he gets there, for she intends to place him in the hands of his relatives residing in St. Paul. That the common consent is that he is a good speaker, and that this ability counts for a good deal in debate and on platform, as well as in after dinner speaking or speaking before dinner. The public has heard him often in after dinner speeches but my family and I have heard him quite often before dinner, particularly when dinner was a little late in its preparation and he is not so bad as other men that I have heard of. He is quite a benevolent man; has lived in Crow Wing county many years; well versed in political economy; progressive in spirit, and as his party platform belies in that referendum business, which, if a senator doesn't do his business, they send him back home."

Farewell Sermon Tomorrow

Rev. H. Thorene, for the past two years pastor in charge of the Swedish Lutheran church of this city, preaches his farewell sermons tomorrow morning and evening. His congregation very much regret his departure from this city as his work since coming to Brainerd has been very successful and his church is one of the strongest in town. He is an eloquent preacher, a fine singer, and a very social man outside of the pulpit, and will be missed by all who know him. He will leave Brainerd next Tuesday for Sullwaer to spend a short time there, and will take a two weeks journey to the west, and a month later will occupy the pulpit to which he has been called in Eveleth, Minn.

END STOMACH TROUBLE

All Distress From Dyspepsia, Gas, Heartburn, Sourness or Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapepsin in the house handy? This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach 5 minutes after. Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will readily see why it makes indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and other distresses go in five minutes and relieves at once such miseries as belching of gas, eructations of sour, undigested food, nausea, headaches, dizziness, constipation and other stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion and dyspepsia or an out-of-order stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else worse, or believe theirs is a case of nervousness, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach or cancer. This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, gas and stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors. A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapepsin.

Farewell Sermon Tomorrow

Rev. H. Thorene, for the past two years pastor in charge of the Swedish Lutheran church of this city, preaches his farewell sermons tomorrow morning and evening. His congregation very much regret his departure from this city as his work since coming to Brainerd has been very successful and his church is one of the strongest in town.

He is an eloquent preacher, a fine singer, and a very social man outside of the pulpit, and will be missed by all who know him.

He will leave Brainerd next Tuesday for Sullwaer to spend a short time there, and will take a two weeks journey to the west, and a month later will occupy the pulpit to which he has been called in Eveleth, Minn.

END STOMACH TROUBLE

All Distress From Dyspepsia, Gas, Heartburn, Sourness or Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapepsin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach 5 minutes after.

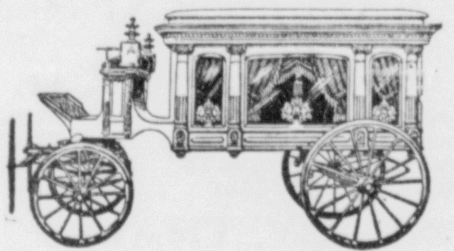

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will readily see why it makes indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and other distresses go in five minutes and relieves at once such miseries as belching of gas, eructations of sour, undigested food, nausea, headaches, dizziness, constipation and other stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion and dyspepsia or an out-of-order stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else worse, or believe theirs is a case of nervousness, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach or cancer. This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, gas and stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors. A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapepsin.

Fresh Air in Winter

In winter, it is hard to get fresh air in certain rooms. Some rooms in a house are usually colder than others, and if you open the windows it is hard again to heat the room properly. If you keep the windows closed you don't get fresh air; if you keep them open you cannot quickly reheat the room. The

PERFECTION
OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

solves the difficulty. You can leave the windows in a room open all day in winter, and when you close them apply a match to a Perfection Oil Heater and heat the room to any temperature you desire in a few minutes.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It burns for nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. It has an automatic locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be quickly cleaned. An indicator always shows amount of oil in the font.

The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down. It is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection Oil Heater is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

When the back aches and throbs. When housework is torture. When night brings no rest nor sleep.

When urinary disorders set in. Women's lot is a weary one. There is a way to escape these woes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills. Have cured women here in Brainerd.

This is one Brainerd women's testimony:

Mrs. Charles Erickson, 1103 E. Oak St., S. E., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for two or three years. A dull ache in my back and sharp pains through my loins, kept me in misery and I was also subject to headaches and dizzy spells. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from a local drug store, and used them in strict accordance with the directions. I now feel better in every way. I believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will prove beneficial to any other person suffering in a like manner."
